Friend,

Since Inauguration Day, Democrats have made it their mission to obstruct President Trump -- and your voice.

...They promised to block our Supreme Court nominee even BEFORE he was announced.

...They've done everything in their power to delay confirmation of our cabinet -- an extreme level of obstruction that no president has faced in recent history.

...They've even run ads to distort our message and deceive the people on a massive scale.

It's time to fight back, Friend.

Radical organizations like the ACLU have raised tens of millions of dollars to back up Democrats as they fight tooth and nail to save what's left of Obama's legacy.

President Trump refuses to let obstructionism get in the way.

He refuses to let the media take the reins of our country.

But he needs your help.

We need to once again harness the same grassroots energy that led us to victory last year.

Thank you,

Team TRUMP
